

The Past and Present

Bishop Murray Memorial Home for Girls - 1910

Bishop Murray Memorial Home for Girls
(Monte Pio) somewhere between 1910 & 1936

Monte Pio Motor Inn today

The front entrance to the Convent and side view of the Sacred Heart Primary School

Monte Pio Motor Inn as it is today

Another view of Monte Pio Motor Inn

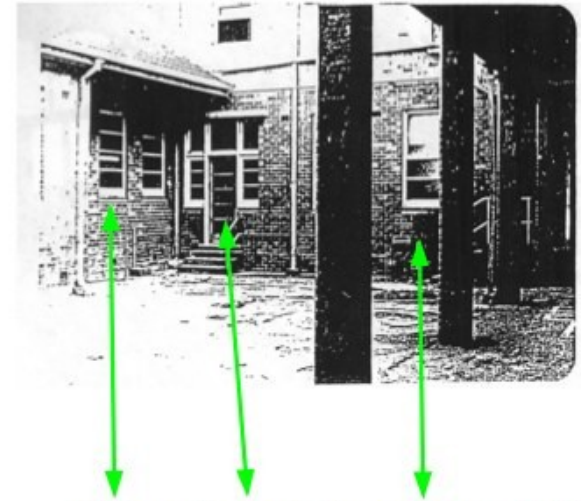

(Photo - 1985)

Upstairs balcony linking girls' home with the high school (see also photo on bottom right)

Now an enclosed corridor linking the different wings of the motel

Kitchen, Convent, Home Science Kitchen
See view of other end of old courtyard below

Part of the old courtyard now converted to a breakfast area – passageway on right

The old passageway to the front of the convent and Church, is now a passageway between wings of the motel and the side entrance

Part of old courtyard linking the girls' home to the school and convent - now links reception and breakfast areas with other wings of motel

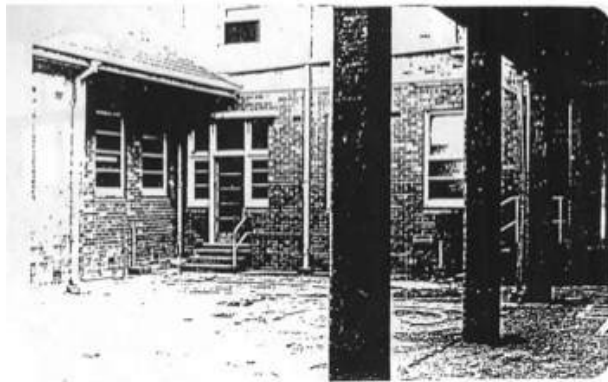

The girls' dining room

Another view of the girls' dining room

The dining room as it is today

The old courtyard

Part of the old courtyard now converted to a breakfast area to left of passageway

The old passageway leading to the front of the convent and Church is now a passageway between wings of the building and side entrance of the motel

Part of kitchen

Back entrance to convent

The same area as it is today

